We believe that by working together, we can guarantee success for all of our students. Good communication between home and school is a key to making the year positive and valuable. By working together, everyone can contribute to the educational process that ensures success for all students.

THE SCHOOL'S RESPONSIBILITY: The School and Teachers will ...

- Commit to communicate with each student's home with written report cards, progress reports as needed, parent conferences, email and telephone contact as needed, meetings for activities and information, newsletters, and individual meetings as needed.
- Communicate with students and parents/guardians regarding successes and problems.
- Be consistent in expectations.
- Give students feedback to allow them to improve within a reasonable period of time.
- Provide students with developmentally appropriate instruction and homework.
- Establish a climate conducive to learning.
- Be prompt and vigilant in the supervision of students.
- Maintain good discipline by trying to solve problems and by accepting responsibility.

THE PARENT'S OR GUARDIAN'S RESPONSIBILITY: The Parents or Guardians will ...

- Encourage a positive attitude and a desire to learn.
- Ensure regular and punctual attendance.
- Support the student's efforts to complete school work on time and to the best of his or her ability.
- Maintain communication with school.
- Know, understand, and support the rules your child is expected to follow.
- Maintain good discipline by attempting to solve problems and by accepting responsibility.

THE STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY: The Student will ...

- Attend school regularly and punctually.
- Respect self and other students and adults.
- Make his or her best effort to learn and grow.
- Complete school work on time and to the best of his or her ability.
- Follow the school rules.
- Contribute to maintaining a safe environment.
- Maintain good discipline by attempting to solve problems and by accepting responsibility.
